

A Song of Praise — Benedictus es, Domine

Thomas Attwood (1765-1838)

- 4 1 Glory to you, Lord / God of our / fathers;
 you are worthy of / praise; / glory to / you.
- 2 Glory to you for the radiance of your / ho-ly / Name;
 we will praise you and / highly ex- / alt you for / ever.
- 4 3 Glory to you in the / splendor of your / temple;
 on the throne of your / majes-ty, / glory to / you.
- 4 Glory to you, seated be- / tween the / Cherubim;
 we will praise you and / highly ex- / alt you for / ever.
- 4 5 Glory to you, be- / holding the / depths;
 in the high vault of / hea-ven, / glory to / you.
- 6 Glory to you, Father, Son, and / Ho-ly / Spirit;
 we will praise you and / highly ex- / alt you for / ever.