

- 4      16 I will begin with the mighty works of the / LÖRD / God
          I will recall your / righteous-ness, / yours a- / lone.
- 17 O God, you have taught me since / I was / young, and to this day I / tell of your / wonder-ful / works.
- M      18 And now that I am old and gray-headed, O God, do / not for- / sake me, till I make known your strength to this generation and your pow'r to / all who / are to / come.
- W      19 Your righteousness, O God, / reaches to the / heav'ns;
          you have done great things; || / who is / like you, O / God?
- 4      20 You have showed me great / troubles and ad- / versities, but you will restore my life and bring me up again from the / deëp / places of the / earth.
- 21 You strengthen me / more and / more;
          - / you en- / fold and / comfort me,
- 4      22 Therefore I will praise you upon the lyre for your faithfulness, / O my / God;
          I will sing to you with the harp, O / Ho-ly / One of / Israel.
- 23 My lips will sing with / joy when I / play to you, and so will my / soul, which / you have re- / deemed.
- U      †24 My tongue will proclaim your righteousness / all day / long, for they are ashamed and disgraced who / sought to / do me / harm.
- 4      Glory to the Father, and / to the / Son,
          and / to the / Ho-ly / Spirit:
- as it was in the be- / ginning, is / now,
          and / will be for- / ever. || A- / men.
