

- 4      1 Hear my teaching, / O my / people;
          incline your / ears to the / words of my / mouth.
- 2 I will open my / mouth in a / parable;
          I will declare the / myst'ries of / an-cient / times.
- W      3 That which we have heard and known, and what our / forefathers have / told us,
          we will not / hide / from their / children.
- M      4 We will recount to generations to come the praiseworthy deeds and the / pow'r of the / LORD,
          and the wonderful / works / he has / done.
- W      12 He worked marvels in the / sight of their / forefathers,
          in the land of / Egypt, in the / field of / Zoan.
- M      13 He split open the sea and / let them pass / through;
          he made the / waters stand / up like / walls.
- 4      14 He led them with a / cloud by / day,
          and all the night / through with a / glow of / fire.
- 15 He split the hard / rocks in the / wilderness
          and gave them / drink as from the / great / deep.
- 4      † 16 He brought streams / out of the / cliff,
          and the / waters gushed / out like / rivers.
- 4      Glory to the Father, and / to the / Son,
          and / to the / Ho-ly / Spirit:
- as it was in the be- / ginning, is / now,
          and / will be for- / ever. || A- / men.
