

- 4      7 Restore us, O / God of / hosts;
          show the light of your / countenance, and / we shall be / saved.
- 8 You have brought a / vine out of / Egypt;
          you cast / out the / nations and / planted it.
- W      9 You pre- / pared the / ground for it;
          it took / root and / filled the / land.
- M      10 The mountains were / covered by its / shadow
          and the tow'ring / cedar trees / by its / boughs.
- 4      11 You stretched out its / tendrils to the / Sea
          and its / branch-es / to the / Riv-er.
- 12 Why have you / broken down its / wall,
          so that all who pass / by pluck / off its / grapes?
- 4      13 The wild boar of the / forest has / ravaged it,
          and the beasts of the / field have / grazed up- / on it.
- U      14 Turn now, O God of hosts, look down from heav'n; || behold and / tend this / vine;
          preserve what / your right / hand has / planted.
- 4      Glory to the Father, and / to the / Son,
          and / to the / Ho-ly / Spi-rit:
- as it was in the be- / ginning, is / now,
          and / will be for- / ever. || A- / men.
