

- 4     1 You have been gracious to your / land, O / LORD,
           you have re- / stored the good / fortune of / Jacob.
- 2 You have forgiven the iniquity / of your / pe-ople
       and / blotted out / all their / sins.
- 4     †3 You have with- / drawn all your / fu-ry
           and turned yourself from your / wrath-ful / in-dig- / nation.
- M     4 Restore us then, O / God our / Savior;
           - / let your / anger de- / part from us.
- W     5 Will you be dis- / pleased with us for / ev-er?
           will you prolong your / anger from / age to / age?
- 4     6 Will you not give us / life a- / gain,
           that your / people may re- / joice in / you?
- 7 Show us your / mercy, O / LORD,
       and / grant us / your sal- / vation.
- U     8 I will listen to what the LORD / God is / saying,
           for he is speaking peace to his faithful people and to / those who / turn their / hearts to him.
- 9 Truly, his salvation is very near to / those who / fear him,
       that his / glory may / dwell in our / land.
- 4     10 Mercy and truth have / met to- / gether;
           righteousness and / peace have / kissed each / other.
- 11 Truth shall spring / up from the / earth,
       and / righteousness shall / look down from / heav'n.
- 4     12 The LORD will indeed / grant pros- / perity,
           and our / land will / yield its / increase.
- 13 Righteousness shall / go be- / fore him,
       and peace shall be a / path-way / for his / feet.
- 4     Glory to the Father, and / to the / Son,
           and / to the / Ho-ly / Spirit:
- as it was in the be- / ginning, is / now,
       and / will be for- / ever. || A- / men.
